About 20 men from the towns along the West river from South London-derry to Brattleboro have recently gone to Missouri to open up a coal mine and two of the men who have gone have written back that it seems to be a moneymaker as they are getting $25 a day for having charge of getting the coal on tractors from the mine to the cars.

City Clerk E. B. Corley of Burling Boys." ton issued Monday a marriage license to a couple whose total age is 176 years. Anthony Jerome of North avenue gave his age as 80 while that of Fanny Green, the bride-to-be, was giv-en as 87. Both have been married before. Contrasted with the above ages, a marriage license was recently grant-ed to a girl 18 and a man 19.

Guy E. Johnson, son of John L. Johnson of Brattleboro, was in the Knickerbocker theatre in Washington, D. C., five minutes before the collapse of the roof Saturday, Jan. 28. He and five others went to that theatre, but part of them did not like the picture and the group left. They had gone but one block when they heard the crash of the roof ahad returned, witnessing the

A fire of unknown origin in Bennington destroyed a building occupied as a tenement and plumbing shop and be-longing to William Fonteneau Wedneslonging to William Fonteneau Wednesday afternoon causing almost total loss. Albert Caron lived in the tenement and most of his furniture was burned or badly damaged, as Mrs. Caron was away when the fire started. Mr. Caron was gassed in the war and has had a hard time getting along ever since. Mr. Fonteneau had an up-to-date plumbing shop and his loss is $5,000, with a good amount of insurance.

Roland Lyford, young son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Lyford of Hardwick, received a bad cut on the back of his head a few days ago in a peculiar acci-dent. His mother sat in a rocking chair caring for another child, who was sick, and little Roland stood upon the rocker of her chair. His mother got out of the chair, which exused him to be precipitated through a window of the his head breaking the glass, which caused the cut. Except for the fact that there was a screen in the window he would have pitched out onto the ground 15 feet below.
